

First Friday

Brought to you by Downtown Dover Partnership

Friday March 5 from 5 p.m. to 7 p.m.

Enjoy Arts, Entertainment & Refreshments at these participating Sites:

On Federal Street

Biggs Museum - First Look pARTy!: Blue Water/Still Water: American Society of Marine Artists opening reception from 4-7 p.m. Enjoy festive fare and be one of the first to see the featured works of the American Society of Marine Artists. Light refreshments. Free, All Ages.

On Lookerman Street

Bel Boutique – Time for a new handbag? Stop in on First Friday and receive 15% off your purchase of a new bag to put you in the mood for spring!

Bell Book & Candle – Entertainment - TBD

Dover Art League – Grand Re-opening featuring the show “Silver Image,” photography from 8 area artists. Enjoy the music of Rick Hudson from “Friends of Folk,” and sign up for a Studio Class – release your inner artist!

Dover Newsstand – Book Signing by Writer Tommie Little, Esq., and “A Warrior’s Tale” is the true story of a near death experience and return.

Forney's – Stop in and see what’s new – we have great gift ideas for your special celebrations.

Forney's Too – TBD

Greater Dover Community Foundation Building – Ribbon Cutting Ceremony 5 p.m.

Partners in Design – Musician Aaron Taylor on Classical Guitar

The Fashion Connection (Maxine’s New York Fashions, The Wedding Boutique, Top Notch Custom Sewing and Alterations) – “Scarf-it-up,” the art of Wearing Scarf’s, demonstrated by Maxine Lewis...AND...buy one scarf, get one FREE!

The Golden Fleece Tavern – Musical Duo – Jonathan & Melissa beginning @ 5:30pm

On Governors Avenue

Dover Fire House - In House Museum Tour – Relive a bit of Dover fire-fighting history with the old engines, relics and photos.

Beyond Dimensions – “Friends of Folk” Musicians Jan and Kelly Crumpley, celebrating St. Patrick’s Day with their wonderful Celtic Music.

Later in the evening...

7pm, The Dover Public Library hosts its’ In Harmony Concert Series:

Crosswind Trio performs at Delaware Public Archives 121 Duke of York Street –Free

8pm, The Golden Fleece Tavern – Music by Danny Shivers